

Empowerment through Knowledge Project (Completed)

- Project Period: April 2017 – March 2018
- Funder: Law Foundation of Ontario
- Objectives

Knowledge' Project is a one year project designed to provide legal information on immigration, landlord and tenant law to various non-profit organizations who are serving non-English speaking community.

This project is one of initiatives of Connecting Communities projects within Community Legal Education Ontario (CLEO) to provide legal information to Non-English speaking population that are facing significant barriers to accessing the legal information and services.

The project is mainly focusing on providing legal information training of immigration, landlord and tenant law through interactive and participatory workshops to frontline workers and trusted intermediaries such as faith leaders and board members of non-profit organizations associated with the Korean, Vietnamese and Filipino community.

This project is developed and led by KCWA Family and social Services (KCWA) in partnership with the Korean Canadian Lawyers Association (KCLA), VWAT Family Services (VWAT), and the Kababayan Multicultural Centre.

